

Odile RENAUD BASSO

Nationality: French

Date of birth: 2 June 1965

Married, four children

Languages: French, English, Spanish

Professional experience

Since 2020: President, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, London

2016 - 2020: Director General, French Treasury, Paris

Responsible for managing 1500 staff in charge of developing France's economic policies, leading on European and international financial affairs, trade policies, financial regulation (banking, insurances, financial markets) and debt management. Vice-President of the European Economic and Financial Committee, G7 and G20 deputy, alternate governor of the World Bank, EBRD, AfDB, IDB, AIIB, AsDB, and Chairman of the Paris Club. Member of Thales' Board of Directors. Member of Thales' Strategic and Compensation committees.

2013 - 2016: Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Caisse des Dépôts, Paris

Responsible for the public investment, asset management and banking activities of France's public development bank (€ 20 billion loans per year to local authorities and social housing; balance sheet of €250 billion). Board member of La Poste and CNP (listed insurance company).

2012 - 2013: Deputy Chief of Staff of the Prime Minister, Paris

Responsible for economic, financial, social, and industrial issues.

2010 - 2012: Deputy Chief of Staff of the President of the European Council, Brussels

Responsible for economic issues. I was actively involved in the management of the euro area crisis and preparing related heads of states and government decisions (creation and design of EFSF and ESM, Banking Union, etc).

2005 - 2010: Director, DG ECFIN, European Commission, Brussels

Secretary of the Economic and Financial Committee and Secretary of the Eurogroup.

2004 - 2005: Director for Multilateral Affairs and Development, French Treasury, Paris

Co-Chairman of the Paris Club and G8 sous-sherpa. Board member of Agence Française de Développement (AFD)

2003 - 2004: Director for Financial Affairs, French Treasury, Paris

Member of the college of Financial markets regulator and of the board of the French Central Bank

2001 - 2003: Deputy Director European & Multilateral Affairs, French Treasury, Paris

1999 - 2001: Head of SME Financing, French Treasury, Paris

1996 - 1999: Head of the Debt and Credit Insurance office, French Treasury, Paris

Secretary-General of the Paris Club.

1994 - 1996: Deputy Head of Africa - Franc Zone, French Treasury, Paris

1990 - 1994: Auditor, Cour des comptes, Paris

Qualifications and training

Kennedy School, Harvard university, Senior Management in Government program (1993)

Ecole Nationale d'Administration (ENA) alumnus (Jean Monnet promotion -1990)

Graduate of the Paris Institut d'Etudes Politiques (IEP-1988), Public Administration

Distinctions

Chevalier de la Légion d'honneur

Officier de l'Ordre du Mérite